O God our Father,

As we come before You in quiet reflection may we be fully aware of who we are in Christ Jesus. By Your Spirit, quiet our racing thoughts as we take time to be still before You each day.

Help us to be fully present in each moment, with an attitude of gratitude for the faithfulness of Your provision. We graciously accept the gifts of joy and sorrow, valuing the lessons learned from both celebration and lament.

We humbly submit to all that You will reveal to us as we seek to grow daily in Your grace, releasing regrets from the past and trusting Your perfect will for the future.

Empower us to live a life of integrity, devoted to choosing what is better, honouring one another with tenderness, building each other up in love.

O Lord, make us instruments of Your love, with open hands and extended arms, to give what we can, where we can, with generous and compassionate hearts.

We pray for the wounded, the lost, the lonely, and the least. May we serve as instruments of Your peace, with the vision to see the hidden hurt in others.

Make us instruments of Your grace, offering forgiveness and acceptance, speaking gently, only after we have listened well.

We pray for our broken, divided, and weary world, remembering especially those experiencing suffering and persecution. Make us instruments of reconciliation, mediating with wisdom while offering warm comfort.

We pray that we will hold strong and fast to the truth of Your Word knowing that Your promises are totally reliable. You are always with us, and Your love is wide, high, deep, and long and absolutely nothing can separate us from that love.

Father, teach us to walk humbly, courageously serving You and others with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength.

In Jesus' Name, with thanksgiving, we pray, Amen.
