

STANDARDS FOR EMPLOYMENT

Any candidate who applies for ministry or for a leadership position in the AGC will be considered, at the time of application, under the following categories:

- a. the spiritual qualifications for ministry as set out in I Timothy 3:2-7 and Titus 1:6-9.
- b. the moral qualifications (i.e. have a reputation for sexual purity and respect for life). Such things as fornication, sexual addiction, adultery, homosexuality (approving, promoting or practicing), incest and other sexually deviant behaviour, or the support of abortion, euthanasia, etc. will bar a person from ministry in the Associated Gospel Churches.
- c. the ethical qualifications for ministry. These include financial integrity, family stability, and a consistently good reputation in the community.
- d. Ministry leaders in the AGC will be expected to avoid both publicly and privately those questionable pursuits which are not wise because they destroy personal testimony, tend to bondage, or adversely influence other believers.
- e. A failure to maintain the above standards while in ministry with the AGC will be cause for a review of a pastor's or leader's suitability for such ministry.
