I Stand Amazed

Are you amazed by the truth that God knows how many hairs are on your head? "Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows" (Matt 10:29-31).

The psalmist indicates that our Father knew our inward parts as they were formed. "For You formed my inward parts; You knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made" (Psalm 139:13-14). These truths may be hard to believe, until we remember. ... Remember what, you may be asking? Remember all the times our faithful Father showed up in ways that were miraculous. I reflect on a couple of recent experiences, but keep in mind, these events occur so often, that if recorded, a whole book could be written!

Just the other day, my heart was burdened for friends who are going through times of severe testing. As I conversed on the phone with one, I shared with her news of others who are navigating deep waters. At the very moment when I said ... "we just need to be able to see a rainbow after the rain," a woman walked into my office, leaving a card on my desk. After, I got off the phone, I picked up the card which read: "Just knowing the rainbow will follow the rain, can keep our faith flowing through sorrow and pain." Wow, Lord, I'm amazed that you would affirm Your truth by sending this encouragement exactly when it was needed!

Another example came about during my evening devotions on the day I had a job performance review. Let's back up to the evening before my review. The verse for that day was; "If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and He will rescue us from your hand, O King" (Daniel 3:17). Well, that seemed rather daunting, until I read further in the devotion to the question that was asked ... "to whom do we align our allegiance? Are we worshiping success at work, with performance and prestige instead of God?" Now, to the next evening ... after the job review, where both my strengths and weaknesses were discussed. The verse was: "But He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me" (2 Cor.12:9). These affirmations continue to amaze. While some may claim that they are mere coincidences, I know better. The God who knows every hair on our head, knows exactly what we need every moment of every day. Yes, this is beyond our understanding, and I stand, amazed!
