A Crown for You and Me

My soul has found its peaceful place
Because of God's amazing grace
He gave His all that we might be
Indwelt by Him, complete and free

Christ alone, He atoned
All my sin, how could it be
Blood poured down
He wore a crown for you and me

His Word is true, steadfast and sure
For every sin, He has the cure
He gave His life upon that tree
Love spilled out, for you and me

Christ alone, He atoned
All my sin, how could it be
Blood poured down
He wore a crown for you and me

And some glad day He'll call us home
We make it there by grace alone
We'll celebrate and dance and sing
Forever with our Saviour, King

Christ alone, He atoned
All my sin, how could it be
Blood poured down
He has a crown for you and me

Lord God, You gave Your one and only Son, that we might be called Your beloved children. Help us to live in the miraculous joy of that resurrection morning. May we always be mindful of the sacrifice that You bore for our sin. Give us eyes that look upon the cost and hearts that rejoice in the grace of our salvation. Help us to walk worthy as we share the good news of Your wondrous love & grace with the world ... for your glory! Amen.
